WRIGHT'S REJUVENATING ELIZIR-"Cans then administer to a mind diseased?" asked the great dramatist. Yes. say we, and "pluck from the heart the rooted sorrow: tool" Wright's Returnnating Elizir has such marvelogs power in resusttating the drooping energies that it is like an in rainable boon to both sexes. The lassitude and sebility, the hysterie and fainting so prevalant among the gentler sex, need not exist when that valuable restorative is at hand for use; it is in the form of a pleasant and palatable liquid, and should ever be present on the totlet table; free from the deleterious minerals canal with competics. It is the greatest vegetable restorative that has yet been made known for the benefit of the debilitated portion of the human family. NEW YORE, Oct. 29 .- Owing to the storm frauds on soldiers none could be transmitte over the wire. The following is a brie summary of the proceedings

Donabue, one of the prisonors, admitted he had signed certain blanks with the name of C. G. Arthur, Capt. & A. D. C. and pe others, but claimed it was no crime as there was no such officer in the service. He als denied the jurisdiction of the commissioner. The Judge Advocate claimed the court had urisdiction and said the offence was in violation of general order 269. The court de cided it had jurisdiction.

O. K. Wood of West Chattanooga county ewore on part of the Government that h was agent of the Union committee of his county. He had his suspicions aroused while on a visit to Fort McHenry and finally went to Mr. Forry, State Agent, representing him" learned that when Lincoln votes were sent there from the soldiers they were changed for McClellan votes and he was assured that there was more of this done than he though

The witness then declaring the operation of filling up the blanks, &c., much other information showing frauds while in Forrys offices, two soldiers came and signed power of attorney and each placed a Union electoral ticket with Democratic State ticket in an envelope and that Forry abstracted the Union and substituted democratic electorol tick-

Wood informed the Provost Marshal of the business, and a number of letters &c., was seized in Forry's office were exhibited The letters are all original and contain no open admissions of frauds., the names of Peter Cogg, H. Crandall the Sheriff of Albany, and E. Necomb of Albany frequently occur in the letter. . After an address by the Judge Advocate the case of Donahue was announced as closed, and the room cleared for the Commissioner to deliberate on it.
